Pastors who actively seek to fulfill God's vision for their ministry are a treasure for the church. They are pastors who have blended their vision for personal ministry with the vision imparted by God for the churches they lead. Their church will accomplish something unique, meaningful, and special because the Holy Spirit has enable them to capture an image of the future and to chart a course of action to reach that goal.....excerpt from More Than Bricks and Mortar

Comprehensive Overview on how to implement Church / Community-based Programs and Church Expansion / Construction Projects

- These workshops are designed to give you the foundational tools to begin a successful expansion project or starting church or community-based outreach programs.

Rev. Dr. Harry L. Seawright is the Senior Pastor of Union Bethel A.M.E. Church in Brandywine, Maryland where he has served for over twenty-five years. He has spent the past 30 years in ministry, specializing in community leadership and development. He is the president and CEO of HLS Consulting, Inc. a company that specializes in church construction administration, management and finance. Noted speaker and workshop facilitator, Rev. Seawright shares the nuts and bolts of church construction to help churches avoid construction pitfalls and delays. Rev. Seawright is the author of More Than Bricks and Mortar: Building a Church Without Losing Your Mind.

Linda J. Thompson has worked in the nonprofit and faith-based arenas for approximately twenty years. She has achieved success in launching various community projects, small business ventures, grant writing, training conferences, and fund raising programs for churches, faith-based and community-based organizations. Kingdom Building: A Labor of Love Journey is a book about faith, trust, and principles in doing God's will in your life for economic development projects. Practical approaches are described for launching various community development projects, as well as tools for successful economic development ministry.

Vision casting is a mind changing experience for mission work that begins with the leader and transcends to the people. Vision casting must be from the heart, not the mind. When the Vision is from God, there is no doubt. You will become divinely driven on how this will be a blessing to others...excerpt from Kingdom Building, a Labor of Love Journey
